Race Overview

SWISS PRIDE continues in cracking form after being touched off when on a hat-trick at Chepstow in January, and has been put up a further 4lb for that display. Noel Williams' seven year old makes only his fifth chase start and could still have improvement in him. Tom Cody, who was only denied by a neck over track and trip last month, has now been considered, while RABINAL is also worth a second look. 1

Couldn't live with stablemate Swiss Pride at Limerick (19.5f, heavy) over Christmas but firmly back on the up returned to shorter when producing a gutsy display to edge out Found A Fifty by a neck in the Irish Arkle at Leopardstown (17f, soft) last month. Should go well.

Runner-up over hurdles at last 2 Festivals. Comfortably accounted for Il Etait Temps when making it 2-2 over fences at Limerick over Christmas and can't have been right when flopping at the Dublin Racing Festival (20 lengths down when unseating last). Hooded first time. 2
